

We do not want the FCC to introduce a more lenient rule than the present Indiana law with regard to Telemarketing.

Since being enacted we have enjoyed comparative silence from telemarketers.

While we are sure that the FCC feels it has a responsibility to States that have no legislation, we would like you not to dilute what we already have.

Thank you for listening.